

The 25 Best Villas To Rent in Cape Town + Surrounds

By Inside Guide

Because there's hardly a better time to splurge on the getaway of your dreams...

With domestic travel à gogo – and international travel blackballed for the foreseeable future – the Western Cape is pretty much our oyster...

We're currently eyeballing these rockstar villas that, ordinarily, are the stuff of wildest dreams... But, we figure, since we're "saving" on international flights and accommodation (not to mention in desperate need of a scene change), splashing out on one of these beauties is worth it, and the stuff lifetime memories are made of.

From a rambling farmhouse on a hillside to an ultramodern architectural edifice by the sea and a historic manor house in the Winelands, these eyeteeth-worthy villas are ready when you are.

INSIDE GUIDE

Where Oranjezicht, Cape Town

Sleeps 14

The setting A dramatic glass eyrie perched on the divide between Table Mountain's wild slopes and the city, you can't better the views from this four-storey luxury villa. It really is quintessential Cape Town living at its best. Watch the clouds wisping over the mountain top from the kitchen and living areas, gaze at Lion's Head, Signal Hill and the harbour as you laze on the pool deck, and soak up 360-degree Mother City views throughout. Furnished with beautifully crafted natural wood pieces and light and breezy colours, the interiors blend easily into the surrounding nature. And with seven stunning suites, multiple dining and living areas, outdoor decks galore, not to mention a wellness suite, yoga studio, gym, swimming pool (and off-street parking for eight cars) it's a place to stretch out in and relax.

Mountain trails for hikes, mountain-biking or morning runs are literally right on your doorstep, and the rest of Cape Town spreads out at your feet, for days filled with exploration, beach-time and gourmet dining in the Mother City's vibrant foodscape. Or entertain at home, where the hotel-style villa staff looks after all the details, including breakfast and a food-shopping service.
